

Rule No. 7
DEPOSITS

APPROVED

A. Application of Deposit

The Utility may require a deposit to establish or re-establish service if and only an applicant for service is unable to demonstrate acceptable credit to the satisfaction of the Utility. Failure to provide a social security number shall not be cause for requiring a deposit. A Utility may not require for its own benefit a deposit for services provided by another carrier, or refuse to accept a deposit in lieu of demonstrating satisfactory credit.

B. Amounts to Establish Credit

1. Flat Rate Exchange Service

No deposits from applicants for Flat Rate Exchange Service will be required to establish credit except as provided in Rule No. 6. A deposit to establish or re-establish basic service may not exceed twice the estimated or typical monthly bill for recurring charges for basic service. A Utility may require an additional deposit for services it provides other than basic service.

APPROVED

C. Applicability to Unpaid Accounts

Deposits prescribed herein are applicable to unpaid bills for telephone service when such service is discontinued.

D. Return of Deposits

The Utility will notify the customer in writing when his deposit is subject to return and will refund the deposit in accordance with the following:

- 1.
3. When an application has been cancelled prior to the establishment of service, unless there are charges due the Utility for telephone service, in which case the deposit will be applied to the charges applicable in accordance with the tariff schedules and the excess portion of the deposits will be returned.
4. Upon discontinuance of telephone service, the Utility will refund, within 30 days and with interest, the customers deposit or the balance in excess of unpaid bills for the service, and the customer will be advised.
5. The Utility shall refund deposit amounts associated with basic service, with interest, after one continuous year of timely payment for basic service, and not later than 30 days after basic service is discontinued. The Utility shall refund deposits associated with other services not later than 120 days after service is discontinued.
