DIRECTORY LISTINGS - (Continued)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

1. Listings in the alphabetical section of the directory are intended solely for the purpose of indentifying customers' telephone numbers as an aid to the use of telephone service. Telephone directories are furnished to customers to facilitate the use of the service and remain the property of the Utility, and may be collected upon issuance of new directories. (T)
2. Business listings consist of a name, the address of the premises on which the primary station, switchboard, or receiving station is located, and the telephone number. A designation descriptive of the business will be included if the name does not indicate the nature of business.
3. Business listings may be those of an individual engaged in a business or profession, names of firms or members thereof, the names of corporations or the officers thereof, the names of employees or departments and branches of the business. When an additional listing involves the name of a member of a firm or an officer of a corporation, or a trade name, the listing shall include a reference to the name of firm, company, or corporation furnished the telephone service and may include the same descriptive of connection with the firm. A trade name may be used as a listing when the business is conducted under that name, as may be evidenced by the fact that the telephone service is so furnished, or in the case of an extra listing, is authorized in writing by the proper authority. (T)
(T)
4. All additional listings in connection with a customer's service except night service, must bear the same address and telephone number as the primary listing except that additional listings in connection with extension stations not located in the same premises as the primary station may show the address at which the station is located. Listings in connection with joint user service must bear the same address and telephone number as the listed service of the customer at the address at which joint user service is rendered
5. RESIDENCE SERVICE LISTINGS AND ADDITIONAL LISTINGS (T)
  - A. Residence service primary listings or additional listings shall consist of name(s), address and telephone number in accordance with the following: (T)

5. Continued

(1) Name

Individual(s) listed must reside on the premises at which the service is furnished and the name(s) shall be that as commonly used by the individual(s) for identification for regular business and social purposes. Normally the name(s) will consist of a surname and a give name or names. The name(s) may be:

(a) That of an individual.

(b) A combination of names and/or initials of two persons with the same surname.

(c) Another given name and/or initials for a person known by more than one name.

(d) Professional Titles:

Residence listings of professional customers may include the professional title indicated by the designation of profession in their business service listing. When professional customers are not subscribers to business service, and are not practicing a profession on the premises where residence service is installed, the residence listing may include the professional title. Names of clergymen, professors, military or naval officers, and nurses may, for the purposes of identification, include their professional title.

6. The charges for additional listings begin with the day they are entered in the information records and when such listings are included in the directory they may not be discontinued until the end of the directory period unless the listed party or concern vacates the customer's premises or becomes the same class of customer as the customer, or unless the customer's service is discontinued, or in the case of guest listing, the listed party become a residence service customer in his own name in the same exchange.

7. All applications for additional listings and lines of information shall be made by the customer or authorized agent.

8. Telephone numbers of public telephones will not be listed in the telephone directory.
9. All applications for reference listings to the service of another customer shall be signed by both customers who are parties to the arrangement or by their authorized agents. The charges for listings referring to the service of another customer begin with the day they are entered in the information records, and when such listings are included in the directory they may not be discontinued until the end of the directory period. Listings will be discontinued at the end of the directory period upon the written order of either of the customers concerned or his authorized agent.
10. The Utility is liable for errors or omissions in the listings of its customers in the telephone directory subject to the provisions and limitations set forth in Sections A. and C. of Rule No. 24.
11. Nonpublished Service
  - a. The primary service listings shown in RATES (1) above will be nonpublished at the specific request of the applicant or customer. The telephone numbers of such service will not be listed in any telephone directory or in the directory assistance records available to the general public except that the number may be included in reference listings.
  - b. Nonpublished Service furnished in connection with Semi-Public Coin Box Service will be treated the same as other individual and party line services.
  - c. Nonpublished Service is applicable for a minimum period of one month.
