B. EXCEPTIONS

1. Private line telephone service is the provision of requisite facilities, including channels and station equipment having no connection with a central office, to enable a customer to communicate orally between specified locations. All facilities required for this service are furnished by the Telephone Company on a full-period service basis only.¹
2. The service equipment and channels provided under this section are not furnished for the commercial transmission of communications between exchanges nor for the use in competition with any form of service rendered by the Telephone Company or its connecting companies.¹
3. The rates specified herein are applicable where facilities are available and when standard transmission can be obtained without the use of special equipment. If, for operating reasons, special equipment is required to render satisfactory service, such special equipment shall be charged for in addition to the applicable charges for standard equipment.¹
4. Rates¹
 - a. For the initial 1/2 mile of circuit or fraction thereof, circuit measurement, per month $6.00
 - b. For each additional 1/4 mile of circuit or fraction thereof, circuit measurement, per month $0.75
 - c. Nonrecurring installation charge per station connected to a private line $7.50
5. Dedicated DS1-located in this Section
6. Digital Transport Service-located in this Section.

¹ As of July 12, 2000, exceptions 1 through 4 will no longer be applicable. The exceptions listed above will only apply to customers who subscribed to the services mentioned in the exceptions prior to this date.

C. LEASING CABLE PAIRS¹

1. General¹

- a. While the Telephone Company installs cable for its own use, it sometimes becomes expedient to lease such cable pairs for various purposes, these purposes to include telegraph, burglar alarm and fire alarm systems, TWX and related equipment, but not to include voice transmission circuits or radio loops covered later in this Section.
- b. A cable pair specifically means each separate cable pair originating from the serving central office.

2. Monthly Rates¹

- a. Within the first mile.....$10.00
- b. For each additional ¼ mile of circuit
or fraction thereof.....$1.00

D. PROGRAM TRANSMISSION CHANNELS AND SPECIAL CIRCUITS¹

1. General¹

- a. The service and channels provided under this section are not furnished for the commercial transmission of communications between exchanges nor for the use in competition with any service rendered by the Telephone Company or its connecting companies.
- b. Provision for all services described herein is subject to the availability of facilities and limitations in operating characteristics of the equipment.

2. Program Transmission Channels¹

- a. Channels for the audio portion of radio and television program transmission will be provided where warranted by special conditions and where the necessary facilities are available.

¹As of July 12, 2000, the services on this sheet will no longer be available. The services listed above will only apply to customers who subscribed to them prior to this date.
