C. Business Relocation Forwarding (BRF) [formally known as Remote Call Forwarding]

1. General

- a. Business Relocation Forwarding (BRF) is a business service which accepts calls to special telephone numbers in ESS central offices programmed for this service and automatically forwards them to a customer's terminating premises equipment. BRF is available as an optional reversed charge toll service with calls forwarded to an exchange outside the local calling area of the call forwarding location. BRF is also available as a local remote call forwarding arrangement. On local BRF, both the call forwarding location and the terminating premises equipment location must be within the same exchange.
- b. BRF service is offered subject to availability of suitable facilities.

MISCELLANEOUS SERVICE ARRANGEMENTS

EXCEPTIONS (continued)

C. Business Relocation Forwarding (BRF) [formally known as Remote Call Forwarding]

1. General (continued)

- c. BRF service is not offered where the terminating station is a coin telephone.
- d. BRF is provided on the condition that the Telephone Company's facilities are able to adequately handle calls to the BRF customer without interfering with or impairing any services offered by the Telephone Company. If in the opinion of the Telephone Company, the facilities are inadequate to handle the calls to the BRF customer, the customer will be required to pay for the cost of additional services and facilities.
- e. One listing in the white and yellow page directories, covering the exchange in which the call forwarding central office is located, is provided without additional charge.

2. Recurring Rates

- 1. The following BRF rate is charged to the subscriber in addition to local charges specified elsewhere in the tariff.

	Per Month	Trans. Code
Business Relocation Forwarding	$20.00	CCBRF

3. Nonrecurring Charges

Service connection charges, as stated in Section 4, are applicable.

- a. Per remote call forwarding feature arranged for service.
- b. To change the number at the call forwarding location.
- c. To change the number to which calls are forwarded at the request of the customer.
- d. To change both numbers as in b. and c. above at the same time.

EXCEPTIONS (Continued)

C. Business Relocation Forwarding (BRF) [formally known as Remote Call Forwarding]

4. Message Charges

The message charges applicable to remotely forwarded calls shall be comprised of two separate charges; (i) a charge for that portion of the call from the originating station to the call forwarding location, and (ii) a toll charge for that portion of the call from the call forwarding location to the terminating premises equipment. The respective charge for each such portion shall be as follows:

a. Between the originating station and call forwarding location.

The charge between the originating station and the call forwarding telephone number location shall be the charge specified in applicable tariffs for the type of call involved chargeable to the originating station with the exception of collect toll calls, which shall be billed to the BRF customer.

b. Between the call forwarding location and the terminating premises equipment.

The BRF customer is responsible for the customer-dialed station-to-station toll charges specified in applicable tariffs. The above charge applies to all calls answered at the terminating premises equipment, including person-to-person and collect calls, even though such calls might not be accepted at the answering location.

5. Minimum Contract Period

The minimum contract period for this service is two months.
