1. DEFINITION OF TERMS

EXCHANGE

A central office or group of central offices, together with the customer stations and lines connected thereto, forming a local communications system furnishing means of telephonic intercommunication without toll charges between customers within a specified area, usually a single city, town or village and its environs. When an exchange includes only one central office, it is termed a single office exchange, but when it includes more than one central office, the exchange is termed a multi-office exchange.

EXCHANGE AREA

The corporate limits of the municipality or the local community area in which adequate local exchange telephone service is, or is proposed to be furnished, together with such rural areas contiguous thereto as are served, or as are proposed to be served with reasonably adequate local exchange service from the exchange in question.

EXCHANGE SERVICE

- a. The general telephone service rendered in accordance with tariff provisions. Exchange Service is a general term describing as a whole the facilities provided for local intercommunication, together with the right to originate and receive a specified or an unlimited number of local messages at charges in accordance with the provisions of this tariff.
- (1) Flat Rate Service: A classification of exchange service furnished a customer under tariff provisions, for which a stipulated charge is made, regardless of the amount of use.
 - (2) Foreign Central Office Service: A classification of exchange service furnished under tariff provisions by means of a circuit connecting a customer's main station or private branch exchange system with a central office other than that regularly serving customers within the area in which the station is located, but within the same exchange service area.
 - (3) Foreign Exchange Service: A classification of exchange service furnished under tariff provisions by means of a circuit connecting a customer's main station or private branch exchange system with a central office of an exchange other than that which regularly serves the exchange service area in which the customer is located.
 - (4) Individual Line Service: A classification of exchange service furnished under tariff provisions which provide that only one main station shall be served by the circuit connecting such station with the central office.
