C. Primary Listings

(T)

A Primary Listing, which may include the name, address and telephone number of the individual, organization, firm or corporation for whom the service has been contracted will be furnished at no charge.

1. Listings will be limited to such information as is necessary for the proper identification for the customer.
2. The length of a listing may be limited to the use of abbreviations where the clarity of the listing and the identification of the customer will not be impaired.
3. The Company may refuse to insert any listing, which in its judgment does not facilitate the use of the directory.
4. Primary business listings must be the name under which the subscriber is conducting business.
5. Business listings may include a designation descriptive of the business or profession if the name does not indicate the nature of the business.
6. Titles are permitted in business or residence primary service listings where required for the purpose of identification.

When two or more main station lines or private branch exchange trunk lines are consecutively operated, the first number of the group is considered the primary listing. Where two or more main station lines or private branch exchange trunk lines are consecutively operated, a primary listing may be made for each line. DID trunk numbers and trunk hunting lines listed will be charged the applicable listing charges for regular or additional listings.

D. Additional Listings

1. General
 - a. Additional listings for which a charge is made, are available to business and residence customers and are subject to the same regulations as Primary listings.
 - b. Additional listings must bear the same address and telephone number as the primary or regular listing. An exception to this may be made in the case of off-premises access lines that are located in other premises solely occupied by the customer, in which case, a different address may be listed. This exception is not permitted when the off-premise access line is located in the residence of an employee of the customer.

E. Non-Published and Non-Listed Numbers

1. General

At the request of the customer, a listing or listings (including name, address and telephone number) may be omitted or deleted from the telephone directory. The divulgence of the customer's telephone number to the public is dependent upon the type of service provided.

a) Non-Published Numbers

The customer listing is omitted or deleted from the telephone directory. Only the name and address of the customer will be carried in the telephone company records, and the number will not be given to any calling party.

b) Non-Listed Numbers

The customer listing is omitted or deleted from the telephone directory, but such listings will be carried in the telephone company information records and the number will be given to any calling party upon request.

2. Regulations

a) The Company shall not be liable should a non-listed or non-published telephone number be divulged inadvertently. When a non-published or a non-listed number is inadvertently published in a directory, the Company's liability shall be limited to and satisfied by a refund of any monthly charges that the customer has incurred for such service.

(T)

3. Conditions

A charge will not apply to non-published numbers for customers having the following services:

(M)

- a) When the customer has another published number for the same class of service in the same exchange.
- b) Temporary Service (service provided for a period not more than 30 days)
